Visiting Nurse Association director in Denver, fifteen-minute talks were given to the heads of the different departments in two large department stores. The superintendent nurse gave a brief history of the association, told of the present work, and asked them to tell their employees. Several men said they had always known there was a Visiting Nurse Association, but had not the slightest idea what the work was. One clerk said she thought it was a place where nurses stayed who were visiting in the city.

OUR SAVINGS

The value of the war-savings plan consists not alone in the amount of money which the people of the United States may lend to their Government upon the certificates that are sold, but also in the lesson which will be taught, in the habits of thrift that will be inculcated as a result of it. What this will mean in conserving the resources of America is inestimable. What this will mean in the future economy of America is incalculable.

Victory can only be won by the valor of our soldiers, combined with the intelligent use of our resources. Savings and economy enlarge the available resources of the country for war, and the industry of the people is necessary to put these resources in the form which will enable our soldiers to use them with victorious effect upon the battle fronts.—From speech of Secretary McAdoo.
